A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567- 8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

DISA Global Solutions, Inc BACKGROUND SCREEN CONSENT FORM

NOTICE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

[IMPORTANT -- PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING ACKNOWLEDGMENT]

NOTICE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

Your employer may obtain information about you from a consumer reporting agency for employment or other permissible purposes. Thus, you may be the subject of a "consumer report" and/or an "investigative consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living, and which can involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends, or associates. These reports may include employment history and reference checks, motor vehicle history ("driving records"), sex offender status, Social Security Verification/Trace, national criminal database searches, and Terrorist Watch list information. These reports may be obtained at any time after receipt of your authorization and, if you are hired, throughout your employment.

These reports will be reported to the employer listed below (the employer). Information in these reports may result in restricting your access to some Owner's facilities who are participating in the North American Background Screening Consortium (NABSC) or the DISA Contractor Consortium. For more information on the NABSC Program, refer to the NABSC program description.

The information in the consumer report will be used to generate a background screen grade. Each Owner participating will provide the maximum background screen grade that will be allowed for Contractor Employees to be eligible for access to that Owner's site. Disa Global Solutions, Inc. or the NABSC Program Lookup Application will compare the Owner's requirements to the background screen grade provided by DISA Global Solutions, Inc to classify you with either an Active or Inactive status for that Owner's site.

- If you do not meet a particular Owner's background screen security requirements, you will be classified as Inactive for that Owner's site;
- If you meet a particular Owner's background screen security requirements, you will be classified as Active for that Owner's site.

If you have an Active status for an Owner's site, you will be eligible for access to that Owner's property. However, any Owner reserves the right to allow or deny access without regard to background screening eligibility.

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time after receipt of this notice, to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report. Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report obtained with regard to applicants or employees is an investigation into your employment history conducted by DISA Global Solutions, Inc (12600 Northborough #300, Houston, TX, 77067 (800)752-6432) or another outside organization. The scope of this notice and authorization is all-encompassing, however, allowing the employer to obtain from any outside organization all manner of consumer reports and investigative consumer reports now and, throughout the course of your employment with the employer to the extent permitted by law. As a result, you should carefully consider whether to exercise your right to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report.

Owners, Contractor Employers and reciprocal Safety Councils participating in the NABSC Program and DCC will have access to verify your background screen security status (Active or Inactive) for a particular Owner's site. Participating Owners and reciprocal Safety Councils will not have access to the details of the background report without additional authorization by you.
